SUMMARY

A detail-oriented Frontend Developer who finds joy in creating visually engaging and user-friendly web experiences using JavaScript, React JS, Tailwind CSS, TypeScript and Next JS. I am eager to expand my expertise into web publishing. I'm excited about the opportunity to blend creativity and technical precision to deliver meaningful online experiences

PROJECTS

Moviebox

moviebox.netlify.app/ · October 2023 – September 2024
· Developed a movie discovery application enabling users to explore trending movies and conduct specific searches.
· Built an intuitive interface using React, CSS3, and JavaScript, ensuring seamless navigation and engagement.
· Integrated the TMDB API to provide users with up-to-date and detailed movie information.

Galleria D'Arte

image-galleria.netlify.app/ · September 2023 – October 2023
· Created an interactive image gallery with responsive design and smooth animations.
· Implemented advanced user-friendly features, such as drag-and-drop functionality and image tagging.
· Utilized a tech stack including React, React-Router, and Firebase, showcasing expertise in modern web technologies.

EXPERIENCE

· Although I have primarily worked on frontend development projects, my experience in designing responsive, user-focused interfaces directly aligns with the requirements of a Web Publisher role. I am committed to learning Content Management Systems, Publishing Workflows, and SEO best practices to excel in this position.
